

RESUME

MICHAEL A. SAURI, MD, MPH&TM, FACP,
FACPM, FACOEM, FRSTMH, CTropMed

MEDICAL DIRECTOR

OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH CONSULTANTS

15005 SHADY GROVE ROAD, SUITE 450

ROCKVILLE, MD 20850

301-738-6420

Dr. Michael Sauri is a specialist in Occupational Medicine and Infectious Diseases in private practice in Rockville, Maryland since 1987. He is the Medical Director of Occupational Health Consultants (www.ohcmd.com) that services over 130 biomedical research laboratories, including Plum Island's Animal Diseases Center. He serves as a Tropical Medicine consultant to international corporations and travelers visiting the Travel Advisory and Immunization Clinic (www.travelclinicmd.com).

He received his Medical Degree from Loyola University, Stritch School of Medicine (Chicago) and Masters in Public Health/Tropical Medicine and Hygiene from Tulane University. During his twelve years in the Military, Dr. Sauri received Residency training in General Preventive Medicine in the US Air Force (USAF School of Aerospace Medicine) and General Internal Medicine in the US Army (Brooke Army Medical Center) and Infectious Diseases Fellowship training in the US Navy (Bethesda Navy Hospital). In addition, he received his third Board certification in Occupational Medicine in 1994, was certified in Tropical Medicine in 1997 and became board eligible for Medical Toxicology in 2000.

Dr. Sauri is the recipient of numerous awards and decorations from the Department of Defense, State Department, as well as State and Local governments, including the Humanitarian Service Medal. Dr. Sauri separated from the military at the rank of Lieutenant Colonel and had the distinction of being the first physician to have been awarded the Defense Superior Service Medal (the highest peace-time military service medal). He has authored numerous articles in the area of Chemical/Biological Warfare, Medical Care of Refugee/Displaced Populations, Tropical Diseases, and AIDS.

Dr. Sauri was selected Occupational Medicine Physician of the Year by the Maryland College of Occupational and Environmental Medicine in 2009 and elevated to Fellow in the American College of Occupational and Environmental Medicine in 2010. In addition, Dr. Sauri has been selected ten times (consecutively) by his peers in the Physician Poll in the Washington Metropolitan Area (Washingtonian Magazine) as one of the Top Physicians in Infectious Diseases (Nov 1991, Nov 1993, Nov 1995, Mar 1999, Nov 2002, Jul 2005, Apr 2008, Mar 2010, and Mar 2012), as well as, three times as one of the Top Physicians in Internal Medicine (Nov 2002 and Jul 2005) and, by Super Doctors Poll in Oct 2011 & Washington Consumers' Checkbook 2012/2013.